

WALKING THE EMERALD ROUTE OF OLIVE TREES

Visitors of Al-Jouf can enjoy the region's flourishing farmlands, where honey, dates, and a variety of fruits and vegetables are cultivated. This lush region is famous for its olive groves, producing premium olive oil and hosting a famous annual Olive Festival.

Beyond its agricultural prowess, Al-Jouf is a treasure trove of history and archaeology: cities like Dumat al-Jandal, with Marid Castle and the Umar bin Al Khattab Mosque, reflect the ancient trade role of the province.

Whether you are drawn by the allure of its olive groves, the mystery of its archaeological wonders, or the tranquility of its nature reserves, Al-Jouf promises a journey through time, culture, and nature, offering a rare and enriching experience in the heart of Saudi Arabia.
