

WHO WE ARE

Slow Food is a worldwide network of local communities and activists dedicated to preserving food culture, promoting food education, and influencing policies in public and private sectors.

Through these efforts, Slow Food continues to inspire and mobilize communities worldwide for a more equitable food system.

To ensure good, clean and fair food for all.

Join us and be part of the change.

OUR IMPACT

 A Global Network Bringing together 2,000 active groups in 160 countries Slow Food is a movement that continues to grow, connecting communities across every continent to drive change.

 An Engaged Community
With 100,000 people directly involved in our activities and 1 million individuals reached our initiatives inspire action and cultivate meaningful connections worldwide.

 A Multi-Stakeholder Movement
By fostering dialogue among producers, consumers, companies, cooks, educators, and public institutions, Slow Food actively supports all stakeholders to build lasting partnerships.

 Rooted in Dialogue and Partnership
Collaboration is our strength. 80% of groups work with other organizations, joining forces to amplify shared goals and foster collective impact.

 A Catalyst for Real Change Our work is driving transformation.
37% of food producers and 43% of consumers are reported to have meaningfully improved their production and consumption practices.

 Dedicated to Education and Training
Empowering communities and fortifying resilience are at the heart of our mission, with 82% of active groups prioritizing education and local capacity-building.

Source: Global survey of Slow Food active groups produced by CATALYS - October 2024

VOICES FROM THE FIELD

#BIODIVERSITY Bali

“Our work in knowledge sharing and local seed exchange is ensuring better food access to families and farmers. Education on how to produce and save their own seeds helps farmers save money and increase their income.”

Komang Sri Mahayuni Gusti Ayu
Bibit Pusaka Women Farmers For The Cultivation And Preservation Of Native Seeds in Bali

Learn more about the initiative

Turkey #EDUCATION

“We have seen the impact that creating synergies and working together with others can have; this will be the driving force of the network’s growth over the years to come.”

Alen Mevlat
olive producer and Slow Food activist

Learn more about the initiative

#ADVOCACY Senegal

“The workshop in Ndem Ecovillage created enthusiasm, inspiration. Each participant shared their country’s knowledge as well as the relevance and impact of their projects. Bringing young and ambitious change-makers from different parts of Africa was inspiring.”

Ousmane Aly Pame
Redes and Slow Food Regional Workshops

Learn more about the initiative

